Jesus the Servant - James Lindeman

I don't think we will fully understand the depth of Jesus' servanthood this side of eternity. He served humanity in His awesome humbling of self and coming to live among us (Phil 2:7). He then learned obedience through suffering (Heb 5:9). Think of the awesome humility of God that he would be found in the form as a bondservant and would learn obedience through suffering.

Jesus also made Himself available to the least of society. Jesus went to those that the religious elite had written-off. When Jesus would look upon a crowd of people, many times He would be moved with compassion. He served the people, He served Jairus, He served the centurion, He served the sick, He served the possessed, He served us all.

Jesus through His service provided salvation to us all. Jesus served us by walking the course necessary to redeem us. He went to the cross for us. When a man stands before a foreign army to protect us, we honor his "service". When Jesus stands before the kingdom of darkness in protection for us, we must also be aware that He is the ultimate example of a loving servant.
